MOONEY IS BACKED BY GERMANY: FICKERT

Raider's Victims Rescued
Diver Fight Off New Jersey

BULLETIN

LEWIS, Del., June 10.—A sugar ship was torpedoed and sunk off the Virginia Capes at 10 o'clock today, according to a pilot arriving here this afternoon.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10.—Cannon firing was heard off the coast here shortly after noon today. The point where the shelling was taking place appeared to be about ten miles away. Earlier in the day a submarine was sighted off the coast here, but at the time was believed to be an American craft on patrol duty.

NORFOLK, Va., June 10.—Sixteen survivors of the crew of the American freighter Pinar del Rio, which was sunk by an enemy submarine off the Maryland coast Saturday, said on their arrival at Elizabeth City, N. C., today enroute to Norfolk, that shortly after the submarine sent their ship to the bottom, they witnessed the sinking of a schooner a few miles away.

ATLANTIC PORT, June 10.—The captain and seventeen members of the steamer Pinar Del Rio, sunk by a submarine last Saturday, arrived here today on a fruit line.

This account for all hands. These eighteen men were picked up off the Jersey coast Saturday night when a flare they sent up was observed by the shores of the submarine's skipper. They said their vessel was destroyed by U-boat gunfire off Maryland.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., June 10.—Crews of two ships torpedoed fifty miles off Hatteras Saturday morning have arrived here.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—With a bag of eighteen vessels of various size to their credit, the German U-boats to day continued to operate off the Virginia coast. So far they have managed to elude all of the defense craft sent to intercept them. They have been in exchange of shots between a destroyer and a U-boat off the capes and, while reports from Norfolk indicated that the German pirate disappeared, naval officials here are inclined to believe that she successfully submerged and was not sunk.

FICKERT'S BRIEF IS NOT VERY BRIEF

ALL SINKINGS ARE IN SMALL AREA

Sinkings to date have been in a small area off the coast of New Jersey, the Delaware-Maryland peninsula and the Virginia capes, and officials here are fully convinced that the U-boats are following out a previously arranged plan to blockade as much as possible the coastal trade routes.

Elaborate precautions have been taken to protect all coastal shipping, officials say. Hereafter the movements of vessels along the Atlantic coast will be directed by the navy. Vessels will follow instructions as to $30,000 cargo of sperm oil unharmed.

Mooney is referred to as an "A. W. W." a direct action anarchist who gives allegiance neither to a government, a church or a religion, and the bomb explosion as a fight against preparedness and for the promotion of anarchy.

Mooney's direct interest in both cannot be denied," the brief states. It calls attention to the fact that Mooney and Alexander Berkman, the New York anarchist, were joint editors of "The Blast," an anarchist paper formerly published here.

CASE OF HILLSTROM IN UTAH IS CITED

The same charges against public officials as are made in this case were made in the Los Angeles Times dynamiting case and in the Joe Hillstrom case in Utah," Fickert says. "In the Hillstrom case the governor of Utah refused to intervene when asked to do so by the President."

"There, as in this instance, the President was impaled upon, it is charged.

The trial of the Hillstrom case that the ultimate purpose of the trial is to secure a full pardon for Mooney, and says that if he is pardoned he may not be tried again, as he would be in the same position as though he had been acquitted.

Fickert in this connection calls attention to the claim made in the Billings case that the ten deaths caused in the bomb blast were the result of a single act and that acquittal on one indictment carries with it freedom from trial on the others under the rule that an accused person cannot be placed twice in jeopardy for the same crime.

New "Aces" in France Leap Into Air Fame

PARIS, June 10.—Two new "aces" have been officially inscribed on the French aviation record. One is Adjutant Merinovitch, who has downed his eleventh German machine, and the other Adjutant Quette, who shot down his tenth aerial victory during the past week.

Adjutant Marinovitch is 19 years old and has been flying since September, 1917. On May 12 he downed a German ace, Prince Von Buelow, who was credited with twenty-eight victories.

Germany Threatens Peace of Holland

PARIS, June 11.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Express quoted a high German official as saying that "Zeeland and Ostend are completely blockaded, Germany will use the Scheldt river as a submarine base, even if it adds another enemy to Germany's list."

Note.—The official referred to Holland, as Germany would violate Holland's neutrality by using the Scheldt as the route to the open sea.

HARBIN, Manchuria, Friday, June 10.—General Semenoff, leader of the anti-Bolshevik forces in Siberia, has driven back the Russian troops which had crossed the Onon river in Trans-Siberia. Advices received here from the fighting zone, however, say that Semenoff is facing heavy odds.

OFF MARYLAND COAST

The American steamer Pinar Del Rio was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine 70 miles off the coast of Maryland Saturday morning.

The Pinar Del Rio was a freighter of 2504 gross tonnage and was built in South Shields, England, in 1885, being christened the Saba. She was bought by an American firm some time ago and placed under American register. It is assumed here she was engaged in the coastwise or West Indies trade.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 10.—Two whalers which arrived here reported they had been held up by a German submarine off Cape Hatteras.

Captain J. T. Gossol of the schooner A. M. Nicholson said that on his pleading with the captain of the U-boat that he was a poor man and that the loss of his vessel meant ruin, he was allowed to proceed with his ship and was not sunk.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Immediately despatch of an American expedition into Siberia and Russian territory is provided for in a resolution offered in the Senate this afternoon by Senator King of Utah. The resolution calls for sending an American expeditionary force to cooperate with Japanese and Chinese forces in combating the German forces which are reported to be sweeping into Siberia and other Russian territory. Provision is also made for sending a commission from the United States to Russia to work in cooperation with the American ambassador there to offset German propaganda. The resolution was referred without debate, under the rules, to the committee on foreign affairs.

STOCKHOLM, June 10.—The counter-revolutionary movement in Russia is growing. The Bolsheviks are living their last days. Unless the present regime is overthrown by the combined efforts of other revolutionary democratic parties there will be a counter-revolution of the monarchical supporters in Moscow and Petrograd, similar to that which triumphed in Ukraine.

Skoropadsky, aided by the Bourgeois and Cadets, has virtually restored the old regime. Mannerheim, in Finland, and Krassoff, in the Don regions, have triumphed in like manner. In a similar way the provinces of the Baltic region have been occupied while the provinces of Pskof and Moscow are under the ban of Austro-German imperialism.

Russia is threatened by foreign imperialists on the north, west and south. The Turks are again advancing in the Caucasus and are aiming to unite at Tiflis with the Germans who are advancing from the north.

HUNS MASKED HAND IS CUNNING.

With masked cunning, by friendly notes through German Ambassador Mirbach, Germany is gradually approaching the heart of Russia in order to pierce it at the desirable moment.

Geddes first lord of the admiralty, indicated his belief that this is the last desperate phase of German submarine piracy. It should not cause any additional anxiety regarding the submarine situation, he said, and should only cause a searching of their hearts by the German people, who have been tricked into believing the submarines will win the war for them.

Bone Dry Bill Is Introduced In U.S. Senate

BY ARTHUR E. MANN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, June 10.—"It is too early to forecast what the presence of a German submarine off the American coast may portend," said Sir Eric Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, in an interview with the United Press today.

"On the one hand it may be merely a sporadic raid similar to that carried out by the U-53 earlier in the war or it may mean the beginning of a serious submarine campaign off the American coast."

"The vigorous and successful

American anti-submarine campaign in our waters has made submarines very costly to the Germans and, perhaps they calculate on getting better results along the American coast.

In this, however, they will undoubtedly be disappointed since all our experience over here has been placed without reservation at the service of the American administration, which will thus be able to base its anti-submarine measures on practical results.

"There is no indication that there has been a sudden increase in the number of enemy submarines. On the contrary, there is no doubt we are sinking submarines faster than the Germans are building them."

ADV. TACKE IN DIRCLE

Sir Eric pointed out that there is some advantage in forcing the submarines to operate farther from the German bases. "The longer they have to travel to reach the operating zone, the less fuel and supplies they will have, and consequently the less time they will have to spend in the operating zone," he said.

In reply to a question regarding the use of submarine operating in American waters, the first lord declared:

"Possibly a submarine of the converted Deutschland type is being used. I do not believe she is of the much-talked-of giant submarine type, but is probably a type with a long cruising and operating range."

Sir Eric said it is possible the Germans might have been able to establish a fuel depot on the American coast, at some isolated point, but he does not believe a submarine base has been established.

"A submarine base means more than a fuel depot," he said. "That includes a repair dock. After a submarine has been out for three weeks it usually needs overhauling. It is pretty difficult to establish such a base on a hostile coast. There would be much more chance of establishing it on a less carefully guarded neutral coast."

Geddes thought it was difficult to say what classes of ships submarines would attack in future, but believed any attack on American troop transports would be largely confined against Germany by increasing America's determination and adding to the severity of her fighting. He also indicated his belief that this is the last desperate phase of German submarine piracy. It should not cause any additional anxiety regarding the submarine situation, he said, and should only cause a searching of their hearts by the German people, who have been tricked into believing the submarines will win the war for them.

NO ONE TO BURY BOLSHEVIK CORPSE.

"We are already a corpse, but there is no one to bury us."

The Bolshevik regime, due to methods of violence similar to the old Czarism in an effort to preserve itself, is universally hated. The proletariat is leaving the Bolsheviks and by its promise of a boasted racial superiority the German millions who were to be the instruments of achievement.

Last week in Moscow a plot was discovered in which hundreds of reactionaries aimed to kill the republic and restore the monarchy through simultaneous uprisings in Moscow, Petrograd and other centers, in cooperation with German bayonets.

The German command, of course, is taking no official part in the plot, but is splendidly informed of the new revolutionary regime at the proper moment.

It is still impossible to foretell immediate developments, but it is certain the brief respite is nearing its end, however much the Bolsheviks seek to lengthen it. The Bolsheviks themselves admit:

"We must go on with the war. There is no other way. This task must not be left half done. We must continue to sustain a legacy of blood and misery. We must in this great conflict live up to our fate, is powerful and used to war. We must be prepared to meet disappointment and temporary reverse, but we must, with courageous hearts, rise above them; with unflinching gait, we must go forward until this war is won."

All factory workers in Petrograd have organized. Their conference demands a revised democratic front, abrogation of the Brest-Litovsk treaty and formation of a nationalistic socialist Russia, in order to restore industry, inaugurate social reforms and end civil war.

The Bolsheviks planned to dissolve the conference, but got cold feet. The conference is planning a general strike unless the Bolsheviks yield.

AMERICANS HOLD FIRM ON MARNE WAR FRONT

WASHINGTON, June 10.—General Pershing's communiqué today reports the repulse of a heavy enemy attack in the vicinity of Bapaume, with severe enemy losses. There was lively artillery fighting in the Chateau-Thierry and Picardy regions.

By FRED S. FERGUSON, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 10.—While the fourth phase of the German offensive was breaking out between Noyon and Montdidier, the Americans continued to hold firm on the Marne front.

In addition to battling off two enemy attacks on Bapaume (five miles west of Chateau-Thierry) and in an assault against hill 204 they advanced and occupied the edge of the wood west of Vaux (two miles west of Chateau-Thierry), which was still occupied by the Germans. Later they returned to their own positions from this later advance.

CONTINUE TO SHELL BELLEAU WOOD.

The Boches continued to shell Belleau wood, but the marines were still holding that place.

The American lines in Picardy (west and northwest of Montdidier) were bombarded in connection with the German artillery preparation for the attack between Noyon and Montdidier. The American artillery responded to the enemy fire with a strong counter bombardment.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN LORRAINE, June 10.—American observers report continuation of the German concentration of troops opposite the Toul sector and farther east, opposite Nancy. Boche aviators and aircraft guns are increasingly active in attacking American observation balloons.

THINK FORCES ARE MASSED IN DEFENSE.

Military men still hold the opinion that the Germans are not contemplating an attack in these sectors, but more likely an American push.

The Journal of Geneva in a recent issue announced that the Americans are holding forty kilometers (about 25 miles) of front in Lorraine.

According to prisoners it is now necessary to take two of the present German divisions to make one of them. The Boches are still held, and the patrols find no difficulty in overrunning No Man's Land. The first two Hun trenches are almost deserted every night.

THREE AMERICAN PRISONERS LED BACK TO ALLIES

WASHINGTON, June 10.—How the captors of three American soldiers on the sector northwest of Chateau-Thierry unwittingly led them back into the Allied lines, owing to the tangled conditions of the fighting front there is told by the correspondent of the Times with the American army in France.

Corporal Sidney W. Rogers and Privates Raymond Howard and Frank B. Ridgeley were captured at Hill 204, when Germans started with them to the rear, but became confused and walked straight into the French lines and themselves were taken prisoner.

The Americans reported that German officers had questioned them closely as to where and where they had landed in Europe, where they were trained and the identity of their units. The Americans refused to answer any of the questions. The Germans served the American prisoners with a compound of flour and water as food.

WIRE STRIKE PLAN HALTED BY WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, June 10.—There will be no telegraphers' strike. This statement was emphatically made in circles close to the White House to-day.

Officials responsible for the statement refused to elaborate it in any way. They spoke with the greatest confidence, however, and it was supposed the President has determined upon a plan which he is sure will bring the telegraph companies and their employees together. The details were not available, but it is believed that the presidents of the companies and the president of the telegraphers' union, S. J. Konenkamp, will be called to a joint conference with the President at the White House in the very near future.

WILL SIGN PARR LEASE TUESDAY

Documents granting the Parr Terminal Co. its lease on the western waterfront for 25 years will be signed between the company representatives and the city officials tomorrow. Commissioner F. F. Morse being prepared to present the matter to the city council. At the same time President Fred D. Parr of the company will sign the company's bond of $25,000 on the contract.

The 50-year referendum period expires today. Since the city council granted the tentative lease two months ago there has been further opposition to the lease, which has developed in council during the preliminary negotiations.

Plans are being prepared for the development of property in addition to the Peacock's property, which engineer stated today already the concern is negotiating for extensive business operations. The architect's plans for the first unit of the waterfront system are in an advanced stage and will be ready for construction work within a few days.

The company plans to expand nearly $1,000,000 in the development of the property. This includes besides the waterfront, new office connections, the construction of the present wharf and the construction of a new pier.

DRAFTEES MAY JOIN NAVY OR MARINE CORPS

The 1918 or "baby" class of draft recruits, just tabulated, may enter in the navy and marine corps, according to a ruling today by the office of Provost Marshal E. H. Crowley at Washington, D. C. This means that boys who have come of age during the past twelve months, instead of waiting to be inducted into service and sent to the various training camps, may enlist in the navy or marine corps and become sailors or "soldiers of the sea."

This ruling from the provost marshal's office may tend to straighten out the confusion which has been created by the

Five Crockett Bars Are Closed by Raid

CRICKETT, June 10.—Twenty-two men were arrested and five saloons closed again as the result of a raid Saturday night in the five-mile zone by a sheriff's posse of fifteen men divided into five groups. Three of the men are charged with selling liquor without a license and the remainder with gambling. All saloons were running when opened. All plainclothes raiders are known as Goodrich's Mancas, Goetics & Kallists, Kallins and Peters.

The authorities are not decided whether to prosecute the liquor keepers for self-incorporation or to turn them over to the Federal authorities, inasmuch as the act was a violation of a Federal regulation.

Those irresponsible individuals,

Peacock said, "who were spreading rumors from 'uninformed' authorities

even before the big boss in shipbuilding was planned said the steel, fuel and transportation situation would not permit the completion of the ambitious shipbuilding program and at the same time take care of the needs of the automobile industry at its present rate of production. Now, here comes the big boss with the encouraging information that he does not antequate serious trouble in going ahead with a much bigger plan because of the ability of the steel and coal industries to increase their outputs and the ability of the railroads to transport materials.

Undoubtedly the automobile industry will voluntarily curtail its output 50 per cent for the coming year. No excessive demands will be made by the government, Washington realizes it needs other industries besides the war industry. So let's just overlook rumors in the future and wait for official statements from men like Mr. Schwab.

"One also hears these days much talk about the gasoline situation. Here are the latest figures from Washington, so please stop worrying:

"During 1917 there was a 32 per cent increase in the production of gasoline, or nearly 2,000,000 gallons per day more than in the calendar year of 1916, according to the latest figures of the Bureau of Mines. The daily increase in gallons over 1916 was 1,832,

"That the increase in production is steadily gaining, and has been gaining during 1917, is indicated by the fact that the production of gasoline during the last six months of the year was much greater than during the first six months.

The gasoline production for the entire 1917, it was 2,729,712,033 gallons.

On a basis of 365 working days, this represents a daily production of 7,478,839 gallons. In 1916, the daily production was 5,625,357 gallons. The total increase in gasoline products in 1917, as compared with 1916, is over

2,000,000,000, the exact figures being

2,058,880,736 gallons. It is said that the government's requirements are only about one-seventh of the country's production.

GERMAN PUSH REGARDED AS LOCAL ACTION

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The new German thrust between Montdidier and Noyon was regarded by officials here as a local operation on a large scale, with limited objectives, designed to consolidate the Picardy and Aisne battle theaters and straighten the line for later mass attacks either toward Paris or the channel.

The same object was sought in the pressure toward Compiegne and Soissons and from Chateau Thierry. The Villers Cotters wood blocked the success of the movement and the Germans are now trying to take the defenders of the wood in the rear.

If they succeed, it is regarded that the line they seek to establish would give them a straight front from the region of Montdidier to some point in the vicinity of Chateau Thierry.

There is little doubt that a heavy reserve is maintained by General Foch at some point within the triangle formed by the new sector of attack, Soissons and Chateau Thierry.

Compiegny is in this triangle and the distribution center probably for the allied and American forces holding the bulge in the battle line that still separates the Picardy and Aisne actions.

Throttle Autocracy, Is Demand Of Federation of Labor

Teeming With Patriotism, Report Is Presented to Main Body of U. S. Workers

(By International

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 10.—The new German thrust between Montdidier and Noyon was regarded by officials here as a local operation on a large scale, with limited objectives, designed to consolidate the Picardy and Aisne battle theaters and straighten the line for later mass attacks either toward Paris or the channel.

We reported to the San Francisco (1915) convention a comprehensive plan for the convocation of such a World Labor Congress, which was approved. This plan was transmitted to the labor movements of all countries. Replies were received from many concurring in the suggestion. However, Gen. Legion, president of the Federation of Trade Unions of Germany, wrote that in his judgment such a movement would be of doubtful practicability, and the British Labor movement withheld endorsement.

For these reasons the Baltimore (1916) convention adopted as a supplement to the first proposition that the labor movements of the various countries should prevail upon their national governments to include representatives of labor in the national delegation which would participate in the World Peace Congress.

These demands are in accord with the fundamental principles of democracy which are the basic issues involved in the war. The labor movement holds that the government should be the agency by which the will of the people is expressed, and that the agency for controlling that will is the trade union.

The war is requiring tremendous sacrifices of all of the people. Because of their response in defense of principles of freedom, the people have earned the right to wipe out all vestiges of the old idea that the government belongs to or constitutes a "governing class." In determining issues that will vitally affect the lives and welfare of millions of wage-earners, justice requires that they should have direct representation in the agency authorized to make such decisions.

The Buffalo (1917) convention declared that the following fundamental principles must underlie any peace treaty acceptable to them:

PEACE TERMS NAMED.

1. A league of the free people of the world in a common covenant for genuine and practical co-operation to secure justice and therefore peace in relations between nations.

2. No political or economic restrictions meant to limit other nations and to cripple or embarrass others.

3. No indemnities or reprisals based upon vindictive purposes or deliberate desire to injure, but to right manifest wrongs.

4. Recognition of the rights of small nations and of the principle, "No people must be forced under sovereignty under which it does not wish to live."

5. No territorial changes or adjustment of power except in furtherance of the welfare of the peoples affected and in furtherance of world peace.

In addition to these basic principles which are based upon declarations of our President of these United States, there should be incorporated in the treaty that shall constitute the guide of nations in the new period and conditions into which we enter at the close of the war the following declarations fundamental to the best interests of all nations and of vital importance to wage-earners:

1. No article or commodity shall be shipped or delivered in international commerce in the production of which children under the age of 16 have been employed or permitted to work.

2. It shall be declared that the basic workday in industry and commerce shall not exceed eight hours.

3. Involuntary servitude shall not exist except as a punishment for crime where the party shall have been duly convicted.

4. Establishment of trial by jury.

5. Relative to war labor policy, in which emphasis is made on the establishment of labor to assist in every way in winning the war, mention is made of the establishment of agencies and policies for the great field of production of munitions and war supplies, for which the following agencies have been provided:

1. A means of furnishing an adequate and stable supply of labor to war industries. This will include:

(a) A satisfactory system of labor exchanges.

(b) A satisfactory method and administration of training of workers.

(c) An agency for determining priorities of labor demand.

(d) Agencies for dilution of skilled labor as and when needed.

2. Machinery which will provide for the immediate and equitable adjustment of disputes in accordance with principles to be agreed upon between labor and capital and without stoppage of work. Such ma-

HOUSING PLAN IS SUBJECT OF CONFERENCE

TRIBUNE BUREAU

ALAMEDA, June 10.—City officials, Chamber of Commerce officials and several local builders held a conference Saturday afternoon and are to confer again over the housing problem in this city. The coming of skilled laborers in the immediate future makes the matter of housing an imperative problem. Alameda's is to keep full benefit from the big influx of skilled mechanics and laborers.

The local builders were not sanguine that private capital could be found to finance the big undertaking.

The consensus of opinion was that the Federal government's housing plan, which will lease to the public the work.

Under the government plan, the government will loan money at low interest rates to pay in part for the construction of the homes.

One of the builders said that it is difficult to sell more than 50 per cent of the employees will come to Alameda and what percent of those who do come will actually purchase homes.

There are 1,000 colonies of houses for rental purposes apparently is strongly attractive to local builders.

New armories of mechanics and laborers will soon be working at the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation's "Big E" shipyards, at the new Ralph Shipyards, at the new concrete shipyard on Government Island.

An address of thanks Quintal urged the workers to perform their duty in the present world struggle.

URGES MEN TO DUTY.

"You men are going to win this war," he declared, "and I ask you to never forget it. This token I have been given I accept in the spirit in which it was presented; I appreciate it, but after all, I have only done my plain duty. That is what every man expects of you—men—that all the nation expects. Men—it's up to you whether we have free men or not! It depends on you, and whether you do your duty."

J. D. Barnes of the Pipe Drivers, and Mike Gabbott of the Boilermakers, also spoke.

The picnic was one of the biggest annual affairs ever given at Idora Park. From early morning the park was crowded with merrymakers. Jim Cray's jazz band played for the workers and their guests, and foot races for children and adults, "Ladies' Nail Driving Contests," and other sports preceded the iron contests that were the features of the day.

The "Snap" riveting closed the contests of the day.

MANY ENTRIES.

The picnic was originally scheduled for May 26, but was postponed to avoid conflicting with the Red Cross Drive. A portion of the proceeds of yesterday's affair was donated to the Red Cross. The riveting contest was originally scheduled for TRIBUNE DAY, but failure of the firm which had promised apparatus to deliver this on time caused a postponement, so the TRIBUNE prize was given to the winners of the contest of yesterday.

The entries in the contests included some of the stars of the shipyards. Among the men entered in the contests were Robert Walsh, A. C. Petersen, Fred Sheddick, H. Hartman, Fred Carter, T. Hart, J. Fernandez, J. Drack, M. J. Mazzoni, A. Gammie, J. J. Hayes, A. Welsh, Joe August, Tom Hayes, M. Lewis, Fred Manning, F. Ross, B. Ross, J. Johnson, J. Sullivan, J. Masden, Joe Shira, A. Hartsock, W. FIX FOOD PRICE; HIT PROFITEERS

The California Food Administration today is planning to put into effect the plan announced by Food Administrator Hoover to fix and standardize consumer prices.

Hoover's announcement, made last Saturday, shows the first movement to directly aid the consumer by government price fixing except in a few scattered instances immediately after war was declared by America.

The new plan will not necessarily interfere with the prices to the producer, which are largely controlled by the government now, but will standardize prices charged to retailers based on cost of production.

Details of the plan indicate there will be nine living committees made up of retailers, consumers and wholesalers. Weekly price lists will be published with explanatory notes and advice regarding substitutes for foods needed in the war. The purpose is stated to prevent profiteers from the work of unscrupulous price raisers. Newspapers are asked to set aside regular space for the weekly price lists. State Food Administrator Merritt announces it probably will be a couple of weeks before the first list appears.

Time to Apply for Citizenship Short

Unless County Clerk George E. Gross receives instructions to the otherwise in answer to a telegram he is sending to Washington today for a specific interpretation of the recently enacted naturalization law, the only time remaining for filing of declarations of intention to apply for citizenship prior to the August primaries is between July 3 and 27.

Advertising Gift-Test on With Rush at Macdonough

Unique Features Mark Close of Wilbur's Big Season

They're off in a cloud of dust! "They" are the crowds that are packing the Macdonough these nights, to get a share of the gifts that Crane Wilbur and The TRIBUNE and the merchants of Oakland are giving away on the stage every night. The merchants are giving away specimens of their stocks to prove "It Pays to Advertise." It is in THE TRIBUNE week and "Oakland Merchants' Week." Incidentally, it is Crane Wilbur's last week at the Macdonough—his farewell week—the windup of his successful season of twenty-one weeks.

The George M. Cohan play "It Pays to Advertise" would be sufficient to pack the theater to overflowing with Crane Wilbur and his retinue of players and when the add to that attraction $500 worth of goods from the stocks of the leading Oakland merchants, to be given away as presents.

Is it any wonder the bargain hunters and the fun lovers are on the ground in greater numbers than during the Macdonough?

PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

The TRIBUNE believes it pays to advertise. It is a low wise to include Theodor Roosevelt, Lloyd Kitchener and Dr. Nevell Dwight Hillis, President Wilson, Crane Wilbur, H. C. Capwell, A. C. Schlueter and Goldberg-Bowen, S. Baumgarten and Lynne Stanley, Fred Moore, the Pacific Coast Hat Company and Rice, the jeweler, and A. F. Edwards, and Libby, McNeil & Libby, Culm-Beretta, and R. G. Corset Company, and Cunningham, and the Regal Corset Company, and Reinhart & Wagner, and Marymont, & Wright and W. K. Nottingham, and Jack Mart, the and Billy Bercoff, and Smith Bros, and the Owl Drug Company, and Daniels, and The Venus Candy Company, and the Moss Glove Company and others.

CRANE WILBUR

Tonight H. C. Capwell will give away through Crane Wilbur, just to see if it pays to advertise, women's silk Eppos, petticoats, men's silk interwoven hose, and coverlets for the kiddies. Smith Bros. will give a $25 Eastman Kodak, the American Chicle Company, and the chewing gum of the Pacific Coast Rattan Company will give a wicker arm chair, the Libby Company will give cans of condensed milk, the Regal Shoe Company will give a pair of shoes, the Venus Candy Company will give a box of chocolates, the Venus Candy Company will give a $10 R. & G. corset given away.

TO GIVE PHONOGRAPH.

There will be given away by A. C. Schlueter a $100 phonograph, and there will be a gift of a gumball machine. The R. & G. will give a novelty box from the Maxwell Hardware Company, a leather handbag from Diehl's, candy from Lehnhardts, Derat Face Powder from Billy Bercoff, a lady's hat from Marymont & Wright, a $100 gift certificate from Cunningham's and an umbrella from the Moss Glove Company, a picture from Morcom's. There will be a big $5 ham.

At every performance Goldberg-Bowen will give away a pound of their Amber Royal Coffee and the Long Coffee Company will give away a pound of their coffee at every performance.

There will be a gift of a case containing 45 cans of Libby's condensed milk—each of it—48 cans at every performance.

Tomorrow night will be Ad Club night, Wednesday night will be Red Cross night.

Thursday will be Jack Martin night. Friday night society night and Saturday will be A. C. Schlueter night.

Sunday afternoon and night there will be a maximum of the entire week, and at great and small, and Crane Wilbur will give his bands full distributing them away the biggest gifts of all.

It will be fun for the crowds, it will be suitable for everybody.

It will, of course, be "on the level," and your chance to get gifts, is just as good as your neighbors.

Keep the point clear that the merchants are giving away gifts through THE TRIBUNE and Crane Wilbur, to see if "it pays to advertise."

They are finding out that it does and their generosity is increasing.

Remember, you can win a free box, seven seats at the Macdonough any night, by writing an essay on the subject "It Pays to Advertise," an essay of 100 words, and send it to THE TRIBUNE.

If it is suitable, it will be printed, as THE TRIBUNE is printing one each day.

If it is printed you will be given a box at the Macdonough Theater for any night of this week. Try your luck at this ad writing.

Tomorrow at noon Crane Wilbur and James Gleason will be guests of the Ad Club, and at 8 o'clock Tuesday night, Crane Wilbur and Gleason will stage the famous advertising scene in the first act of "It Pays to Advertise."

The Ad Club will re-enact by attending the performance of the play, in a body, at the Macdonough tomorrow night.

Supervisors Grant

$2000 for July 4th

After being turned down a week ago in the matter of a county appropriation for the Oakland Fourth of July celebration, the committee from the Merchants' Exchange won out at today's meeting.

One-half of the money will be available for the use of the Exchange, $500 goes to the Alameda committee and $500 to the Livermore committee. The resolution authorizing the expenditure passed unanimously.

The Lookout Mountain Post of the G. A. R. sent a letter to the supervisor, offering the services of their members to help physically fit for any and to which they may be assigned in aid of the government.

Thus, the warehouse men say, will necessitate a 20 per cent rate increase in the new rates.

With the ranks of the fire department becoming rapidly depleted through men leaving to take up more remunerative employment in the shipyards and in other industries, the situation has become so threatening that the city council today passed to print an ordinance introduced by Commissioner F. F. Jackson and providing for payment of a bonus of $120 a year to pay for firemen's uniforms. The payment would be semi-annual, in April and October.

Commissioner Jackson stated that he will request the council later to take similar action in providing for the men in the police department in event that the proposed charter amendments for an increase in the salary schedule are not adopted at the next election.

Fire Chief Elliot Whitehead reported to Commissioner Jackson today that within the last week ten members of the fire department have resigned their positions and that more are planning to leave the city employ.

For several months past the department has been short of men and at the present time there are scarcely enough experienced men to break in the new ones when any are obtainable.

The firemen are paid from $100 to $125 a month.

It is likely that Commissioner Jackson will call the council within the next few days to raise the present physical requirements and the age limit in the department in order to induce men to join. The height requirement is now 5 feet 7 inches.

Eighteen trained nurses have signed for war work so far in the campaign for the 25,000 nurses being conducted by the Red Cross. The quota set for Alameda county is 70 and it is hoped that this will be exceeded.

Those who have enlisted so far are: Jean Benedict, Grace Kruske, Jane Hinch, Olga Sordahl, Hannah Hyland, Ida Staff, Bertha Ryder, Alberta Hodges, Helen Gunn, Helen Sanders, Ethel Bremer, Mabel de Gomes, Bertha Rainey, Myrtle Hayford, Emma Monroe, Nellie Burns, Mrs. N. W. Sheffield, Helen Mullin.

Warehouse Men Seek Rate Raise

Twelve of the leading warehouse men with plants in Oakland and San Francisco, are represented in a petition filed with the Railroad Commission this morning for a further increase of rates.

The petitioners set forth that in the recent increase granted by the Commission as a basis of one-hour rates $1. Since the raise was granted, employees have decided to demand an eight-hour day for $4 and a 75-cent an hour charge for overtime.

Thus, the warehouse men say, will necessitate a 20 per cent rate increase in

FIRE DEPARTMENT RANKS THINNING

With the ranks of the fire department becoming rapidly depleted through men leaving to take up more remunerative employment in the shipyards and in other industries, the situation has become so threatening that the city council today passed to print an ordinance introduced by Commissioner F. F. Jackson and providing for payment of a bonus of $120 a year to pay for firemen's uniforms. The payment would be semi-annual, in April and October.

Commissioner Jackson stated that he will request the council later to take similar action in providing for the men in the police department in event that the proposed charter amendments for an increase in the salary schedule are not adopted at the next election.

Fire Chief Elliot Whitehead reported to Commissioner Jackson today that within the last week ten members of the fire department have resigned their positions and that more are planning to leave the city employ.

For several months past the department has been short of men and at the present time there are scarcely enough experienced men to break in the new ones when any are obtainable.

The firemen are paid from $100 to $125 a month.

It is likely that Commissioner Jackson will call the council within the next few days to raise the present physical requirements and the age limit in the department in order to induce men to join. The height requirement is now 5 feet 7 inches.

Cadillacs Come From Behind in A Great Rally

Babe Hollis Has 4-Run Lead Going Into Last of Ninth; Loses in Tenth.

By CARL E. BRAZIER.
Pat McDonough did not have any arm to make any attempt to turn back two base-stealers who later scored. Chick Autrey passed up a chance to run down a man that would have been a second out and would have closed up the inning without the Don Lee Cadillacs doing enough damage to be able to the Richmond Elks. Babe Hollis did not have a thing to shoot at the auto boys after Frank Tidell had hit the ball out of the park to start the ninth inning. And Hollis was not once allowed to stick through the ninth inning while the Cadillacs overcame a four-run handicap, but he was also allowed to go back in the tenth long enough for a walk and three hits to steal away a game that had been tucked in Richmond's back pocket. Charlie Freine could have been warmed up between the ninth and tenth innings and might have checked those wild-eyed Cadillacs in that great finish; there are some who think that Freine might even have stepped into the box in the middle of the ninth frame without any warming up.

THREE TEAMS TIED.
Put into the tale from the viewer's point of the Richmond Elks, do not overlook the fact that the Don Lee Cadillacs made as pretty a stand as was ever made in the history of ball, and almost hopelessly against them, those auto boys never said die and they were rewarded with 5 to 4 to 10-inning victory after they had gone into the last of the game with the lead to 9, 10, 11. The Cadillacs came from behind, and Richmond back into a three-cornered first place with Crockett and the Marines.

This sets the stage for a great battle at Crockett next Sunday, and Richmond will be the winner; the winner of this game will be tied with the Marines, who figure to stay out in front with a win over the Oakland Merchants next Sunday.

The Marines are still up against practice of coming from behind against opposing teams until they are the terror of the Central California League. Yesterday was not the first time that the Cadillacs have been in the lead, and others are beginning to respect them. Of course there have been several new faces added to the Cadillac roster, but all the new faces in the world could not build up in one day the old-time spirit that the Cadillacs have been showing. It is this old spirit that makes the writer apologize for all the bad things he might have hinted about the auto boys; they may have been a bunch of high-spirited stars, but they had the old fight and as long as Dick Nett pitches the kind of ball he turned up yesterday, those Cadillacs will be right up there, making all kinds of trouble for the clubs that look over paper to be stronger pennant contenders.

GAY STARTS TROUBLE.
With Babe Hollis, allowing only three hits in eight innings, and the Richmond Elks out in front for a 4 to lead going into the last of the ninth, everything looked like a sure win for the visitors that the Cadillacs lacked offensive strength was fully justified. Then in the last of the ninth the trouble came.

Frank Gay cracked out one of Babe's fast ones and dropped it up over the right field fence. But that was only one run and the Elks were still three to the good. Heister took care of Zamloch's grounder for an out at first, and still had one out in center field. Then shot a fast one through Jim Galloway's legs, and it did not land in a baseball eye to see that the Cadillacs were getting everything that Hollis had, and right away that had been from the start to think about shifting Freine from second even though he had had no chance to warm up.

STILL HOLLIS STAYS.
Leo Cunningham slapped one against the left field fence for a double and Tidell romped home with the second. Galloway had more than the second, and what. Hollis was thinking about that change. Hollis was thinking the best he had, but he had nothing. Shanahan shot a safety to center and it was only the fastest of fielding by Galloway. Heisted out in center and now Cunningham decided to stick to third. Two runs were in; two runs were needed to tie the score and the Cadillacs had men on first and the last with only one out.

Shanahan out, but Hollis was thinking and what. Pat McDonough made no attempt to turn him back, the Cadillac had the runners on second and third where a long hit would have the score.

Now in line, Tidell, the midge catcher who is setting the bushes afire with his work, looked out a short one to center, deep enough to score Cunningham, but Shanahan did not dare venture out with only one out.

Shanahan out, but Hollis was thinking and what. Autrey had rounded past first. Autrey and Heister exchanged throws in an attempt to get Tidell, but for some reason unknown Autrey passed up all chance to set Tidell and Tidell across the diamond to third. He probably thought he could get Shanahan, but the latter was not to let Autrey get him and he did not return to first without any trouble.

Autrey could almost have chased Tidell down himself and still kept his eye on Shanahan to hold him safe at third. If Autrey had caught him, it would have been two out and Arlett's long fly to Galloway from hitting at a good angle. Hollis walked him to fill the bases with none out.

The biggest kind of a miracle was all that could save Hollis, and it did not. It was not a day of miracles for that ninth inning. Tidell shot a fast one at Galloway's feet, so fast that Galloway could not find the ball cleanly in time for the play at first for some unknown reason, but nobody cared, for the winning run had gone over the plate and

Marines Pull Crockett Out Of Top Place

Torkelson Is Bumped Harder Than Larkin in Great Battle at Vallejo.

The largest crowd that has witnessed a game at Vallejo this season saw the Marines of Mare Island work their way up to a tie with Crockett and Richmond for first place in the Central league by defeating Crockett 5 to 2. And again those Vallejo fans witnessed a great game in which "Red" Torkelson for Crockett and Larkin for the Marines engaged in a tight-fighting battle.

The Marines had the ball on their comrades to victory, and it was a gaudy day for the fans of Vallejo.

The Marines got out to a good start by scoring a run in the first inning of the game and then in the second and the sixth, when they again took the lead by scoring a run after Crockett had made one in their half. Larkin was in as good form as might be expected for a team outside of the sixth and ninth. Torkelson, and then he held them until he suffered one bad inning, and that was in the eighth when the Marines put over the runs on bunched hits to catch the game.

The Marines opened the game by showing a run over the plate in the first inning. "Red" Torkelson was wild and erratic, worked for him to walk, and then out with a bunt and scored on a hit to right by Murphy. On the throw to the plate Murphy went to second but that was as far as he went, as both the next three batters saw both pitchers working in old time form. Torkelson showed big league twirling in the third, for in that inning the Marines put runners on third and second with only one out.

The sixth saw Crockett shore over a run to tie the count. Less O'Hair started them with a drive to right. Runman walked and then came Tommy Cullinan to center that set up a double and out and Runman scored. Scars was out stealing second. Larkin sent both Boine and Smith back to the bench on strikes to end the inning.

The score was only tied for a minute when the Marines took the lead in the same inning to take the lead. Brown opened the round with a rap to Bohn, then off to center to O'Hair's bad throw. Torkelson, and then he held them until he suffered one bad inning, and that was in the eighth when the Marines put over the runs on bunched hits to catch the game.

MOONEY PLEA FROM BRITISH LABOR PARTY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Cables from the British and Irish Labor parties asking new trials for Thomas J. Mooney and others indicted in connection with the preparedness day parade were received here today by the International Workers Defense League.

The message from the British Labor party, signed by Arthur Henderson, said:

"The national executive of this party desires to associate itself with the thirty-seventh convention of the American Federation of Labor in requesting new trials for Mooney and others convicted in the bomb cases."

The Irish cablegram, signed by Charles Ruane, Liberty Hall, Dublin, announced that an appeal for a new trial for Mooney had been sent to Governor Stephens.

$50,000 CHURCH IS DEDICATED

LIVERMORE, June 10.—Within a year after the destruction by fire of the old St. Michael's Church, a splendid new $50,000 edifice has been reared on the site, which yesterday, is the presence of thousands of visitors and parishioners, was dedicated with inspiring patriotic ceremony, the features of which were the raising of the flag on the 100-foot pole erected on the lawn, the blessing of the service flag of fifty-six stars and the address by former Superior Judge William H. Donahue.

It is due to the confidence and untiring effort of Fathers McKinnon and McNamara, pastors, assisted by a committee of parishioners and citizens, that yesterday's event was so soon possible. The result of their effort is an edifice that recreates the beauty of the old mission architecture and adds greatly to the church wealth of the community.

Archbishop Edward J. Hanna of San Francisco assisted in the ceremony and every Catholic organization within 100 miles was represented. The exercises began at 10:30 a. m. Saturday evening under the direction of the Livermore Council of the Young Men's Christian Association. The ceremony of dedication opened at 10 o'clock yesterday with a parade from the parish house to the church, headed by the forty-piece band of the St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum. The dedicatory ceremony took place at 11 o'clock, following which the ladies of the parish served luncheon. More than 1000 were seated at a time at the luncheon tables.

Ralston Funeral to Be Held Wednesday

Funeral services will be held Wednesday for Andrew J. Ralston, 85, one of the founders of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and former representative of the Bank of California of that city in its Nevada mining interests, who died in this city yesterday. Ralston was one of the pioneer factors in the State's development and leaves a host of friends.

The dead man was a native of West Virginia and came to California in the early 1850's. He was former president of the Selby Smelting and Lead Company and a brother of W. C. Ralston, former head of the Bank of California. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Clara Selby Ralston, and a son, Louis C. Ralston. The funeral will be held from the home of his niece, Mrs. Thomas M. Oiney, 358 Vernon street.

ALLEGED "DIP" ARRESTED.
Accused of having robbed Louis Silva, 1016 Kennedy street, several days ago, Lucy T. Anderson was arrested last night by Patrolmen Martin and Mulhern at 1236 Seventh street. Silva said that the woman stopped him on the street, threw her arms around him and extracted $13 from his hip pocket.

N.D.G.W. Delegates Leave For Southern Convention

Thirty-second Grand Parlor Meets at Santa Cruz

Delegates from Oakland Parlays of the Native Daughters of the Golden West will leave this afternoon for Santa Cruz to attend the Thirty-second Grand Parlor which begins its session tomorrow. A large delegation will represent the east bay cities.

Mrs. Addie Mosher of Piedmont Parlor is to be elevated to the position of grand president of the order. She is at present grand vice-president.

More than 200 delegates, representing 200 or more subordinate parlors and membership of close to 10,000, will attend the annual convention. The parlors of Santa Cruz county have made extensive preparations for the reception and entertainment of the guests. The meetings will be held at the Cast del Rey. Arrangements have been completed for addresses at each day's session by prominent men and women, this plan being an innovation.

Dr. Charles E. Chapman, assistant professor of history at the University of California, will speak tomorrow afternoon on "California History."

Other speakers at the sessions of the convention will be Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College; F. N. Nalder, secretary of the bureau of lectures of the University of California; Agnes Fay Morgan, Ph.D., assistant professor of household sciences at the State University.

The candidates for office in the Grand Parlor, so far announced are as follows:

For grand vice-president, three candidates will be elected: Grand treasurer, Nellie W. Hartman (Lafayette 5) of Nevada City; Mary Bell (Buena Vista 68) of San Francisco; Grand Marshal Bertha A. Briggs (Copa de Oro 105) of Hollister.

For grand secretary, there will be two candidates: Grand Secretary Alice H. Dougherty (Angelus 22) of Livermore; Past Grand President May C. Beldemann (La Estrella 89) of San Francisco.

For grand treasurer: Grand Treasurer Susie K. Christ (Yosemite 83) of San Francisco.

For grand marshal: Grand Inside sentinel Catherine E. Glosler (Alturas 10) of Alturas.

For grand inside sentinel: Grand Outside sentinel Mary Ella Donnelly (Camellia 49) of Anderson.

For grand outside sentinel: Sallie Griffin (Golden Gate 155) of San Francisco.

For grand organist: Catherine Gilmore (Occidental 28) of Eureka.

For grand trustee (seven to be elected)—Grand Trustee Dr. Winifred Byrne (Minerva 2) of San Francisco; Grand Trustee Corlina Wood (Santa Cruz 26) of Santa Cruz; Mary Francis Mitchell (San Jose 81) of San Jose; Mattie M. Stein (Ivy 88) of Los Angeles; Grand Trustee Dr. Victor A. Derrick (Aloma 106) of Oakland; Mae Edwards (Keith 137) of San Francisco; Grand Sackett and Minnie E. Flynn.

MRS. ADDIE L. MOSHER

Trustee Alta Baldwin (Gold of Ophir 190) of Oroville; Dr. Louise C. Hellier, Vista 283) of San Diego.

The delegates named by the east bay parlors to attend the grand parlor are as follows:

Piedmont, No. 87. Oakland—Elsie Wemmer, Sarah Realy, Josephine Clark and Jennie Brown.

Aloha, 106. Oakland—Emma Howland and Minnie Martin.

Hayward, 122. Hayward—Ella Sterling, Mildred.

Richmond, 147. Richmond—Ella King.

Berkeley, 150. Berkeley—Annie Beck.

Bear Flag, 151. Berkeley—Maud Wagner and Emma Bergemann.

Encinal, 156. Alameda—Laura E. Fisher and Mary O. Hester.

Brooklyn, 157. East Oakland—Nellie de Blois and Anna Silva.

Argonaut, 166. Oakland—Mary Bruce and Rose Feeney.

Bahia Vista, 167. Oakland—Mabel Buss and Katherine McCuen.

Fruitvale, 177. Oakland—Winnie O'Brien and Nettie V. Christensen.

Laura Loma, 182. Niles—Ida E. Easterday.

Bay Side, 204. San Bruno—Mae Sackett and Minnie E. Flynn.

"Under this law the people could not prevent the utility district from taking over the utility, however much opposed they might be to it."

"If the utility district can take over a utility, however much opposed to it the people may be, why is it necessary to hold another election on the question of acquiring a utility?"

"Again this report fixes the cost of forming the district and acquiring a utility at $75,000. This is also unqualifiedly a misrepresentation. Its searching investigation did not serve to inform the committee that in 1913 the district was formed, and a law was passed to make it possible to hold special city elections on the same day, using the same election officers and polling places, as the regular county elections."

"Under this law the first election to form the district may be held at the primary election August 27 and the second election for directors may be called by the supervisors general election day, November 5. Thus the formation of the district and election of directors will not cause the usual expense of special elections."

"The election to acquire a utility will cost approximately $9000. This will not be until the fall, and after the election we have gathered the information, data, engineering surveys, estimates of cost of impounding a pur mountain water supply and bringing it to the east bay cities—at least a year's work. So that against an alleged expense of $75,000 we will have an actual expense of $9000. Otherwise the figures are all right—only $66,000 out of the way."

"The candidates for directors to be endorsed by the Public Ownership League will be pledged to dedicate their services to the people without compensation until a utility is acquired. The mayor's committee will be pledged to do the same."

"The recommendation of a city commission of three to be appointed by the mayor of each city to work out a split-up city ownership under a law under which a water utility only could be acquired is ludicrous to the point of pathos."

OTHER ATTEMPT.

"The committee has attempted to block the formation of a public utility district by putting forth the objection of the government to bond issues during the war. The government's attitude on bond issues has no connection with or bearing on the proposition to form a public utility district. To make this definite and certain, I quote a telegram from the capital issues committee:

"L. E. Magoffin, President Public Ownership League, Oakland, telegram May 26 sent by this committee to city council advisory committee, Frederick Kahn, chairman, states very clearly that this committee is not passing in any way upon merits of proposition submitted (the formation of a public utility district), but is only setting forth some objection, as they expressed it, by this committee by letter, March 21, which was substantially the same language of large amounts of securities during the war, unless directly essential to public health and welfare, is not compatible with the national interest. Capital Issues Committee."

"From which it is very clear that the Capital Issues Committee not only does not oppose the formation of a public utility district, but would even authorize an issue of bonds during the war if directly essential to public health and welfare."

"The formation of the district is preparedness. It means action promptly which we can act. Almost twenty thousand voters in the cities have endorsed this policy by signing the petition for the formation of the public utility district, and the petition will be filed when the law committee of the Public Ownership League fixes the date of filing, to come within the provisions of the law making it possible to hold the election on the primary date, August 27, and avoid the expense of a special election."

President Public Ownership League."

"We gladly comply with all regulations of the Federal Food Administration and will continue to do so."

ANSWER TO COMMITTEE'S REPORT MADE

RANCHER DEAD, 14 INJURED IN AUTO WRECKS

Criticism of the report made Friday by the committee appointed by Mayor Davie to investigate the advisability of Oaklanders taking over certain public utilities made by L. B. Magoffin, president of the Public Ownership League, in a statement issued today by Magoffin he says in part:

"In one place the report says, 'First, the will of the people must be ascertained by an election on the question of whether or not a district should be formed, then a primary and final election must be held to elect directors. After the election of directors another election must be held on the question of acquiring a utility.'

"This is put forth when they are trying to run up a great expense for election in forming the district and acquiring a utility. At the end of the third paragraph before this they say:

"Under this law the people could not prevent the utility district from taking over the utility, however much opposed they might be to it."

"If the utility district can take over a utility, however much opposed to it the people may be, why is it necessary to hold another election on the question of acquiring a utility?"

"Again this report fixes the cost of forming the district and acquiring a utility at $75,000. This is also unqualifiedly a misrepresentation. Its searching investigation did not serve to inform the committee that in 1913 the district was formed, and a law was passed to make it possible to hold special city elections on the same day, using the same election officers and polling places, as the regular county elections."

"Under this law the first election to form the district may be held at the primary election August 27 and the second election for directors may be called by the supervisors general election day, November 5. Thus the formation of the district and election of directors will not cause the usual expense of special elections."

"The election to acquire a utility will cost approximately $9000. This will not be until the fall, and after the election we have gathered the information, data, engineering surveys, estimates of cost of impounding a pur mountain water supply and bringing it to the east bay cities—at least a year's work. So that against an alleged expense of $75,000 we will have an actual expense of $9000. Otherwise the figures are all right—only $66,000 out of the way."

"The candidates for directors to be endorsed by the Public Ownership League will be pledged to dedicate their services to the people without compensation until a utility is acquired. The mayor's committee will be pledged to do the same."

"The recommendation of a city commission of three to be appointed by the mayor of each city to work out a split-up city ownership under a law under which a water utility only could be acquired is ludicrous to the point of pathos."

OTHER ATTEMPT.

"The committee has attempted to block the formation of a public utility district by putting forth the objection of the government to bond issues during the war. The government's attitude on bond issues has no connection with or bearing on the proposition to form a public utility district. To make this definite and certain, I quote a telegram from the capital issues committee:

"L. E. MAGOFFIN, President Public Ownership League, Oakland, telegram May 26 sent by this committee to city council advisory committee, Frederick Kahn, chairman, states very clearly that this committee is not passing in any way upon merits of proposition submitted (the formation of a public utility district), but is only setting forth some objection, as they expressed it, by this committee by letter, March 21, which was substantially the same language of large amounts of securities during the war, unless directly essential to public health and welfare."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilkes of Berkeley have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Alison Wilkes, to Sergeant (sic) Frederick Luckinger. Informally the bet of the young couple was made known when an infant given at the Wilkes home, Red, white and blue was carried out in the decorative plan of the table, the Stars and Stripes flanked on either side by the tri-color and the Union Jack.

Miss Wilkes is a graduate of the Mount Vernon School in Placer county, where her father is an extensive land owner. She is also a graduate of the Berkeley High School and the San Francisco State Normal and has specialized in studies at the University of California. For the past semester she has been a member of the faculty of the Mount Vernon School.

Sergeant Luckinger is a graduate of the University of California class of 1916. At the time of his enlistment about eight months ago he held the position as assistant principal instructor in agriculture and general science in the Gonzales High School. At present he is stationed at Camp Lewis. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hoover, formerly residents of Vernon Heights, are contemplating a visit to this city in the late fall. They are at present touring the New England states. Mr. Hoover is vice-president of the Nashville and Chattanooga Street Railway and with his family has spent several winters in California.

Miss Katherine Kinney, daughter of the C. C. Kinneys of Berkeley, is expected to arrive from Portland, Or., where she has been the guest of friends for several weeks. When Miss Kinney's father returns from the East plans will be made for a summer outing by the family.

Miss Ruth Northon left Wednesday last to spend a part of her vacation with friends at Monterey. She is the daughter of Mrs. Franz Z. Northon of this city.

To spend four months at their summer home at Lake Tahoe, Miss Antoinette C. Wilkinson and Miss Florence Newman left recently closing their home in Fifth avenue. They have named their cottage "El Re-poso."

Mrs. Newton A. Koser entertained the committee that arranged the recent concert for the benefit of the Defenders Club of Oakland at her home Friday afternoon. The proceeds were received from the general fund. The result that $750 was cleared for the purpose of entertaining the enlisted men. A score or more assisted in the rendition of the program.

The end of this week Miss Priscilla Krusci, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krusci of Alameda, is expected home from Tacoma, and Seattle, where she has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hedges. Miss Krusci has been delightfully feted since her arrival in the north, and has shared in many of the diversions and social affairs of the service set up at Camp Lewis, a number of the officers having entertained in her honor.

Robert Krusci has enlisted in the naval reserve and is stationed at San Pedro and will later be joined by Mrs. Robert Krusci, who will go to Long Beach to reside with her husband at that camp for a short time.

From Key West, Fla., comes word of the marriage of Miss Mildred Ownby and Robert Godingh, Eddie, which took place May 17. Both young people have many friends this side of the bay. The bride journeyed across the continent and they are now in Philadelphia, having sailed shortly after their marriage for New York.

Society east of the bay is interested in the marriage of Miss Elva de Pue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. de Pue, and Warren Matthews of

Garis' BEDTIME STORY

(By Howard R. Garis.)

"Timble-inkle-ink!" went the telephone bell in the hollow stumps bungalow of Uncle Wiggy Longears, the rabbit gentleman.

"I'll answer," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the innocent and housekeeper. And when she had listened a while to the talk, she said: "It's for you, Uncle Wiggy."

The bunny rabbit gentleman first smelt his pink nose and wouldn't sneeze and said the telephone, went to do his talking and almost the first thing he said was:

"Oh, dear! That's too bad! I'll see what I can do for you. I'll send you a doctor, if I can't find one." asked Nurse Jane. "Don't tell me that anything has happened, and that the chimney has swallowed some smoke."

"Oh, nothing like that," said Uncle Wiggy. "I'm going to Grandpa Gosey Gander. He's sick and he wants me to go get him a trained nurse."

Uncle Wiggy hung up the telephone and put on his tall hat, taking as red as a red and striped rheumatism crutch down off the piano.

"Where are you going?" asked Nurse Jane, as she saw the bunny rabbit start from the hollow stumps bungalow.

"I'm going down to the nine and ten dollar hotel to get a trained nurse," answered Mr. Longears.

Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy began to laugh.

"What's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggy.

"You're silly you are!" went on the muskrat lady. "You don't need to buy nurse for Grandpa Gosey Gander."

"Why not?" asked the bunny.

"Because you're a nurse," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "I'm a nurse," said you many a time when you had the rheumatism bad? And I guess I can take care of Grandpa Gosey! Just wait until a nurse with my frilled cap and my striped dress and white collar, and a few other things, and I'll go to Grandpa Gosey's house."

"Fine!" cried Uncle Wiggy. "That will save me going to the eighteen and nineteen dollar store. Go get ready, Nurse Jane."

Soon the muskrat lady started with the bunny rabbit gentleman for Grandpa Gosey's house.

Over the hill and through the woods they went, and Nurse Jane was thinking what she could do to make the old gentleman feel better. She would look at his tongue, put a shiny silver shield down his throat to see how he was, and all the things that.

Pretty soon she and Uncle Wiggy came to a deep, dark, shadowy dingle dell in the middle of the woods and Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy said:

"I think, Uncle Wiggy, I'll put on my uniform and cap here. Then, when I look like a real nurse and he won't look like a real nurse, if he thinks I'm just Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, but not some professional from the nine and ten cent store, then I'll get well quicker."

"Very good! Do it!" said Uncle Wiggy, so Nurse Jane did. She looked quite sprightly in her cap and striped gown, and she and Uncle Wiggy went on alone on again, when a sudden out from behind a stump jumped a bad old fox.

"Aha!" barked the fox. "I feel just like eating a good meal. You come to dinner with me!" he said, making a grab for the bunny and Nurse Jane.

"Come along!" said Uncle Wiggy.

"They didn't want to, for they knew they would most likely be the main part of the meal, but Uncle Wiggy didn't know how to get away from the fox, and he was just going to say 'I'm dead!' when Nurse Jane did something."

Quickly she took out the shiny thermometer pencil and she said:

"Before you eat, Mr. Fox, I must take your temperature. Open your mouth and keep your lips closed. I'm going to take your temperature! That's what I want; your temperature!"

"Oh, please don't," begged the fox. "I'm not going to eat you, and anybody to take my temperature! Oh, I made a mistake! I didn't know you were a trained nurse! Don't take my temperature and away the fox ran, very much frightened, leaving Uncle Wiggy alone.

"I'm silly, and was a nurse," said Nurse Jane. "By taking his temperature I only meant to see how hot or cold he was. I guess he thought I was after his pocketbook."

HOMEMADE VINEGAR.

Put the sound cores and parings of apples into an earthenware jar, cover with cold water and add one cupful of molasses for every gallon of water. Cover the jar with cheesecloth and in three weeks strain the liquid through cheesecloth and bottle it.

MINT VINEGAR.

Use either fresh or dried mint. Fill a wide-mouthed bottle with the crushed mint, then pour in all the vinegar the bottle will hold. Let it stand for five weeks, then strain the liquid into another bottle for use.

NASTURTIUM VINEGAR.

Gather the flowers, stems and seeds of nasturtium plants, cut them off and put them in a strong vinegar and let stand for 10 days. Then add one-half ounce of ground cloves and one-quarter ounce of red pepper to each jar. Let stand for three weeks.

ROLL the sugar and water together for 20 minutes and allow the syrup to stand until lukewarm. Add the bread, which has been spread with the yeast cakes, putting yeast side down. Set in a moderately warm place for four weeks, then strain and bottle.

RASPBERRY VINEGAR.

Bruise the raspberries and add two cupfuls of vinegar to every pound of fruit. Allow the mixture to stand for one week, stirring every day. Then strain and add two cupfuls of sugar to every pint of juice. Boil the mixture for three minutes and allow it to get cold. Then bottle and seal.

Ready to Serve U. S.

Lookout Mountain Post, G. A. R. of Berkeley has adopted resolutions that pledge all members of the post who are qualified physically to give their services to such war duties as may be required from them at home. The resolutions say:

"Resolved, That it is the unanimous opinion of the members of this organization, composed of men of the Grand Army of the Republic, that we are fully able to render aid and do work and act in the capacity of guards, watchmen and otherwise and thereby relieve younger men who can do actual war work at the front and elsewhere, and be further of service."

"Resolved, That the members of these resolutions be forwarded to the honorable the city council, of the city of Berkeley, the Berkeley Council of Commerce and the Berkeley Council of Defense, and that we earnestly request these last mentioned bodies to exert their utmost influence to obtain the end sought by these resolutions."

DO YOU WAKE UP TIRED?

When you awake in the morning feeling tired out, feeling worse in fact when you went to bed, you are confronted with one of the characteristic symptoms of neurasthenia. It is due to the run-down condition of the nerves that rest does not bring renewed strength and sleep refresh the tired brain. Overwork and worry are the most frequent causes of this condition.

Neurasthenia is the name given to this common form of nervous debility in which the power to recuperate is gone.

The blood can be built up so that it will increase the supply of needed elements to the wasted nerves and this is the only way that the nerves can be restored.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic that especially builds up the nerves because they supply to the blood the elements that the nerves need.

Many nervous disorders, sometimes chronic ones, have yielded to this tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills when other methods failed to give relief.

They are certainly worth a trial.

The treatment calls attention to the burden added to the power companies by reason of war work and says this work must be accorded preferential consideration.

The principal subject to be discussed will be a program for reduction of the electricity supplied manufacturers of non-essentials.

COPPER PENNY ONCE SPURNED NOW KING PIN

Penny, penny—whos got the penny?"

Not the Southern Pacific Company. For today the 6-cent fare went into effect. Southern Pacific has a transbay service, and Mr. and Mrs. Commuter took just about all the pennies there were in the whole bay district by way of change.

It was surprising what happened to that little old red Indian and Teddy Roosevelt's buffalo. Side by side with the trolley cars, they were sent to their own. Without a trolley, could not get to San Francisco and San Franciscans could not come to Oakland. And nobody could go anywhere—at least over Southern Pacific lines. The new situation produced some funny complications.

For instance there was the collector who ran out of pennies. He didn't dare ring up a nickel fare for local transportation and he didn't dare ring up a dime for transbay fares, because he would then have to make up the pennies he didn't have when he turned in his money at nightfall. So he settled it in practical fashion. He let everybody in his car ride for nothing. It was a merry man's trip!

JOH TO EXPLODE.

Explaining to foreigners who never read the daily papers that one cent was needed to round out Uncle Sam's income became a work of art. Conductors and collectors, brakemen, switchmen, engineers and every other shape, style and design of employee was called into requisition before the idea was driven home. Sometimes the drill encountered solid iron and refused to penetrate, in which case they gave it up.

The Southern Pacific cashier of pennies has been busy for days collecting pennies. Almost a wagon-load went out early this morning in the pockets of various gamblers. It was like old Roman days when farmers came in along the via Aquitania with a dozen chariots hooked to a flock of oxen and loaded down with two to three million brass sexterii to buy a plug of tobacco or a yard of silk. If the pace keeps up train crews will be round-shoed, and the next night of copper they are obliged to carry.

The process of giving four pennies for one nickel—and comparatively few persons have any pennies due to the Red Cross coin collectors, the gum and match machines, and small children with appetites for "suckers" and the like—is working a shortage of pennies. Already the banks are being besieged for the lowly cent pieces and the banks have mighty few them selves. The service rate becomes a national one for street cars and short run railroad fares. "It is present to issue a 6-cent piece to cover the situation. Then, with the five-dollar piece feeling like a nickel and the quarter similar in size to the 6-cent piece, and the dime and the penny alike save for the dime, milled edge everybody will have a his twisters, his keys and his canary whistle and edged toward the point in the shadows.

"Woof! Woof!" The sound came louder. The cop grew more cautious. Carefully he peered around the door. A figure was outlined in the doorway—a figure with one hand to its chest. The cop leveled several shots.

"Come out of there!" A scared colored man stepped into view.

"What were you down there?"

"Takin' cold!" "Takin' cold" What's the idea?"

"Ah got to sing bass" down at the church Sunday and Ah'm tryin' to catch a cold, dats all."

"NEVER WROTE IT" DECRES "GENE BOWLES"

Gene Bowles publicity director for the Chamber of Commerce, says he didn't do it—but the rumor is just the same, that the remarkable article on a certain local hotel, appearing in "Western Hotels and Travel," is his just the same.

It is a remarkable bit of work as an exposition in literary pyrotechnics, and as an example of the elasticity of the English language.

It calls the hotel the "Beautiful Suburban Chateau of Home-like Luxuries."

And then for language, well, here's the article.

The castle-like and beautiful Hotel Blank in the transbay Berkely hills, panoramically overlooking Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco and the Golden Gate intersea range and group from the azure Tamalpais to the spiraled Twin Peaks has newly, finally or Jordan "arrived" significantly and prophetically, after a trio of try-out years of seasons and former managements. Designed and begun before the epochal year of 1906, the imposing and inviting hotel was allowed to lag into completion or commission until the exposition year of 1915 for which it was whipped into partial finish and equipment as the hotelic headquarters of various exposition-convention bodies and societies and their followers, including discriminating tourist transient and attractivity appealed.

It had a direct trolley-and-boats scheduled service to the exposition piers and scored coast and continental fame and popularity.

After the exposition the hotel was tried out as a winter-home for campers and commuters.

"I never wrote it" insists Bowles.

ONE MAN TRYING TO GET "WOOF, GOLD

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Wednesday the Key Route invites to the financial Donnybrook by starting an 11-cent fare over the lines, with the sanction of the State Railroad commission. Agents of the company have been stealthily stalking errant pennies wherever seen.

The company's sleuths have been put on the trail of several copper pieces known to be in the east bay district. One small child was followed to his home and offered a company automobile in exchange for a penny. But the child looked at the automobile—and kept the penny.

Conservative estimates place $50,000 in pennies as the very least with which the transbay and local traffic can be handled under present conditions and leave pennies enough for the penny-broke commuter who must now carry them in his pocket to go where he is going. Bankers say there are not that many pennies to be had in this district. Therefore—

Penny, penny, who's got the penny?"

BABY'S HEALTH TEST ENTERS SECOND WEEK

SIGNED PERMIT NECESSARY TO SOLICIT FUNDS

With the board of directors of Plymouth Woman's Club doing the janitor service in the children's health clinic which has been established in Plymouth Center, Piedmont Avenue and Laurel Street with a fragrance cup of tea served the mothers while they waited their turn to go into the examination room, with cool drinks of the "proverbial" the restless little youngsters who are making for childhood a splendid record of healthy body, the second week of the weighing and measuring test of children under 6 years old was successfully launched this afternoon. Besides the Plymouth Center, an additional headquarters in the campaign which is being conducted under the child welfare committee of the Council of National and State Defense was opened in the Oakland Social Settlement at Third and Linda Streets.

Physician and nurses with dispatch tallied up the health cards in the day's big rush of business, adding valuable information to the data obtained from the tests which covered more than 1200 babies last week. Mothers of Oakland and the east shore cities are responding patriotically to the call which has been sent out asking that "voluntarily" they bring their offspring under 6 years old to be weighed and measured and examined physically, that the other cities in the United States may be benefited. The plan is a comprehensive one, calling for a national standard of childhood, which will be arrived at when the cards from every city and town in the United States are returned to Washington, D. C.

When Mary is six months old she should be 25 1/2 inches tall and weigh 16 1/2 pounds against Johnnie's 26 1/2 inches and 18 pounds. Here is one standard and for every age the measurements have been determined for healthy, normal babyhood. Just how the babies of Oakland measure against it or whether a new standard may be established in the city, the June weighing and measuring test will determine.

An appointment will be made at the nearest health center for the mother who returns. The TRIBUNE coupon to the headquarters of the Oakland woman's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, room 420 Central Bank building.

It is unlawful for any one to solicit in Oakland for contributions to war funds of any nature whatsoever without a permit from the Oakland War Fund or its Enforcement Committee, of which B. H. Pendleton is chairman. The committee is composed of twenty men and women and careful study of all applications will be made before any permit is granted. It has been found that unauthorized persons have been soliciting, and while it is not known for certain whether or not the object is a worthy one, the committee has issued a request that all persons refuse to contribute unless the solicitor has a permit from the committee. The city ordinance governing soliciting of contributions is as follows:

"Be it ordained by the council of the City of Oakland as follows:

"Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to solicit, ask for, or receive from any person, firm or corporation any money, goods or other property for the purpose, or purported purpose, of being applied to war relief without first obtaining a permit from the Council of the City of Oakland, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as a prohibition against the sale of tickets for theater parties or entertainments for such purpose."

"Section 2. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdeemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $150.00 and not more than $25.00 or one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense, or by imprisonment for not less than thirty (30) days and not exceeding six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

"Section 3. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed."

"Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect immediately."

HELD FOR GRAVE CRIME

Charged with the alleged assault of a 5-year-old girl at Mosswood Park, George M. Murphy is under arrest today and is being held pending further investigation by the authorities.

GIRLS' LEGION NOT SO GIRLY; CHANGES NAME

TRIBUNE BUREAU

NEW YORK, June 10.—The American Girls' Legion, at the suggestion of Dean Hunt of the University of California, has changed its name to the American Legion of Girls, A. W. being the acronym. The organization will meet tomorrow evening in the women's gymnasium, Hearst hall, and drill under the leadership of George Page of the Marine Corps. The W. L. will meet every Tuesday evening, and tomorrow evening the Legion will be open for inspection by any interested.

The name of the organization was changed because of the wider range in ages for those eligible to join. At the outset it was solely for girls between the ages of 18 and 21, but as the "bairns man" wife and sisters of those at the front have desired to join, the age limit was raised to 31 years.

Mrs. Betsi Arms has raised a company of one hundred from the Eastern shore, and companies are also being raised from both the Oakland club and the Business and Professional Women's club.

At tomorrow's session, following the death of Dr. L. L. Cunningham, physician at the University of California, will lecture on first aid. Every member must have first aid teaching.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson, daughter of General Du Barry, of Co. A. War fame, has designed the uniform for the A.
